

ET2SMEs- Kick-off Event

Maximising economic impact of the Einstein-Telescope to Small and Medium-sized Enterprises in Greater Euregio Meuse-Rhine area

Date / Time: May 27th 2021, 13.00 – 14.30 hours – Program

- 12:30 Opening doors / Intro
- Welcome speeches: Dr. Tim Grüttemeier, District administrator of CityRegion Aachen
13:00 Mark Vos, Coordinator Interreg Euregio Meuse-Rhine
- Key note: “The Einstein Telescope and the research activities for a soft landing in the Dutch-Belgian-German cross-border region”
13:20 Prof. Dr. Stefan Hild, University of Maastricht
- Presentation: “ET2SMEs – The Einstein-Telescope and SMEs”
13:35
- In a nutshell: Targets, offers & added values for SMEs
Ralf P. Meyer, Leadpartner AGIT
 - First results: ET technology catalogue & mapping of ET competencies in the enlarged Euregio Meuse-Rhine, Annick Pierrard, ITF ULiège & Geoffrey Parks, Sowalfin
- Break / Selection of session I or II (5 minutes)*
- Parallel sessions: “The challenges of ET relevant technologies”
- 14:00
- (Input: 15 minutes /
Q&A: 15 minutes)
- Session I: Instrument technologies
Input from: Prof. Dr. Achim Stahl, RWTH Aachen
 - Session II: Geology technologies
Input from: Prof. Dr. Frédéric Nguyen, ULiège
- In each session: Q&A from businesses, research and stakeholders

The ET2SMEs project is carried out under the Interreg V-A Euregio Meuse-Rhine Programme, with € 1.15 million from the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF). By investing EU funds in Interreg projects, the European Union invests directly in economic development, innovation, territorial development, social inclusion and education in the Euregio Meuse-Rhine.

info@et2smes.eu | www.et2smes.eu