Aachen (D)

A Cross Border Matchmaking Event

B2B Matchmaking Smart Living

These days Smart Living Technology has gained more visibility as well as importance. It includes various topics like domestic, sharing, interoperability ecosystems for sustainable, safe and comfortable living. Furthermore it promotes interoperability framework that is open, free and accessible. It is the enabling tool for vertical solutions in different areas, with different functions - energy, comfort, safety, automatization and security management.

The aim is to guarantee interoperability between domestic living and all the devices on in. Thanks to this interoperability, there will be more energetic efficiency, safety and comfort for everybody. In this way, home is a functional place of a more extended Smart Community, open to new opportunities of Smart Cities and Smart Grid.

The event will tackle the subjects of smart living solutions. Use the opportunity to find your perfect match! Besides brief pitches, where SMEs present themselves, their ideas and what they are looking for, get to know each other in one-on-one meetings to discuss your problem or solution in detail with companies across the borders.

We look forward to welcoming you!
